Special mailings are sent periodically to members listed as the head-of-household. The head-of-household is typically the person working for the sponsor company and is listed to receive these mailings. Spouses and children do not receive these mailings. Who should be listed in your household as head-of-household? (NOTE: If there are two sponsor company employees in the same household only one can be listed as head-of-household.)
